

Exhibit 2: Project Site Photos

Figure 1. The trail connector begins along the Sonoma Valley floor from the staging area and will provide trail users an opportunity to enjoy Calabazas Creek

Figure 2. Trail users take a break under the shade of olive trees at one of the homestead sites

Exhibit 2: Project Site Photos

Figure 3. Nunn's Iron Springs supports wetland vegetation

Figure 4. The Preserve contains a series ridges and steep canyons. From the main ridgeline, trail users will be able to take in views of the Bay, including views of the Golden Gate Bridge, Oakland Bay Bridge and, on clear days, the Santa Cruz Mountains

Exhibit 2: Project Site Photos

Figure 5. Trail users take in the view from high above Sonoma Valley

Figure 6. Rock outcroppings in the sun provide Ridge Trail users a chance for spectacular lunch spots

Exhibit 2: Project Site Photos

Figure 7. Ridge Trail users along the rim of the Mayacamas will take in fantastic views of the San Francisco Bay