

Exhibit 4: Project Photographs

Source: Amy King, Solano Resource Conservation District

This broad portion of the Blue Rock Springs Corridor adjacent to Wardlaw Elementary School and Jesse Bethel High School is proposed for extensive riparian and upland revegetation with native plants. The shallow, low-gradient section of Blue Rock Springs Creek on the left supports emergent reeds.

Exhibit 4: Project Photographs

Source: Amy King, Solano Resource Conservation District

A volunteer crew maintains recently planted native vegetation in the Blue Rock Springs Corridor. Blue Rock Springs Creek meanders amid dense vegetation on the left.