

Exhibit 5: Site photographs

West end of project area. Invasive reed canary grass on left.

Extensive cattail monoculture to be restored to native marsh.

Native small-flowered bulrush near causeway in project area.

Causeway connecting project area to Freshwater Ranch. Flow under causeway will be enhanced by the project.

Confluence of Wood Creek and Freshwater Slough. This area was restored in Phase I.

Wood Creek at low tide. This area would be enhanced by the project.